

We worked together using Numicon to find out about tens and units.

The Great Fire of London

We investigated lot of different materials to see which would make the best window.

We really enjoyed making model houses for our homework!

We visited the fire station. We told the Firemen some facts they did not know about the Great Fire of London!

They also told us how to be safe using Fireworks.