

It's all Greek to me!

Our E-cadets have been working hard and doing whole school assemblies and lessons, to ensure that the children in our school know how to keep safe on the internet.

In Design and Technology we looked at a variety of Ancient Greek pottery. We designed our own and then created them with clay.

In PE we have been focussing on Gymnastics. We have been working collaboratively creating dance routines including gymnastic shapes.

