

Magical Mapping

Unfortunately, because of the snow, our visitor had to be cancelled. We still had lots of fun creating our own maps and also had fun in the snow.

We enjoyed maths. We were using cubes to help solve fraction problems.

Year Two took their learning outside to work on maps and measuring

We enjoy working together and helping each other.

