

My heart skips a beat!

This half term we have been learning about our bodies: the heart, digestive system, skeleton and the nervous system.

We really enjoyed completing our Private Peaceful display to show what fantastic writers we are in Year 6.

During Science week we had lots of fun making poo! We discussed that looking at poo can tell us about people from the past, their diet and the way they lived.

